THANK YOU FOR A SUCCESSFUL PARISH PICNIC!

I wish to express my thanks to the parish staff and to the small army of volunteers who made this year's Parish Picnic such a tremendous success. The event was such a happy and joy-filled occasion for the many, many who attended. An elderly woman unknown to me told me that she had never seen in her life a parish picnic quite as well done as ours. We are all in your debt for this job so well done. May our Blessed Mother Mary, whose birthday was on that same date and who no doubt too had her hand in things, bless and reward you-Father O'Donohue.

BREAKING BREAD is a parish social ministry and dinner club. We have several dozen members who meet for dinner 3-4 times per year. Each couple only hosts once and is a guest at all other dinners. We set it up with four couples or eight people per dinner. Couples and singles are equally welcome. It's a lot of fun and gives everyone a chance to meet folks from across the parish. Each dinner is on a day and time agreed to by the guests, typically on Saturday evenings after the 5:30 Vigil Mass. Please contact Mark Greer at mfgreer@verizon.net or 703 323-9033 with any questions and to join!

CATHOLIC SCHOOL | Igniting Hearts

On Monday, September 9th the school held a prayer service in honor of our Blessed Mother's birthday the day prior. Students processed in with flowers which were presented in her honor. In addition, 15 new Mary icons will be displayed in the school hallway during her special months, October and May, as tribute to Mary's various titles. This year the school is focusing on Mary Undoer of Knots as a special devotional. Every student received a gift of a tiny saint, Mary Undoer of Knots.

We invite those interested in exploring the benefits of a Catholic education to contact the school at 703 978-7117 anytime for a tour.
