Hundreds of brands you know and trust have made a commitment to education by joining the Box Tops for Education family. Box Tops are the little pink 'coupons' that you find on hundreds of your favorite products www.btfe.com/products. When students, families, schools and communities work together to collect Box Tops, the money adds up. Imagine the difference you can make in helping the children of our school. Box Top Clippings can be dropped in collection containers in the Vestibule. Please contact Kate Pindea at KLPineda@cox.net with any questions. Thank you for your support of Holy Spirit School.

A Reluctant Youth Ministry Volunteer

Dear Holy Spirit Family,

I have been a volunteer with the High School Youth Ministry for two school-years now. While I originally had no intention of working with this ministry, it has become an integral part of my life and I hope that my testimony inspires others to join in its mission.

My wife and I began volunteering with the High School Youth Ministry in the fall of 2012, which, ironically enough, was only one month after our wedding. We had known Kate Kelly, the High School Youth Minister, through the Holy Spirit Young Adult Group, and she reached out to us asking if we were interested in helping with the teens. My wife was enthusiastic about the idea, but I was reluctant to say "yes"; I thought we would have too much on our plates as a newly-married couple and we would not have the extra time to devote to the teens. My two-word answer to my wife about volunteering ending up being "yes, dear" instead of "absolutely not," and I could not be happier we agreed to be a part of the ministry.

Our work with the High School Youth Ministry has been extremely fruitful and has led to so much good in my life as a volunteer. While I initially thought I would be helping the teens through the ministry, the teens have helped me in the following ways:

Working with the teens in the large, co-ed group and with just the guys in small group has forced me to know my faith better. I cannot help young people grow if I do not have the desire to grow and I cannot speak about what I do not know. The ministry has inspired me to always look for opportunities to learn more about our Catholic faith.

My interactions with the teens have held my life to a higher standard. I will preface this by saying that I am by no means perfect, but I now say and do things wondering, "What if one of the teens heard me say this?" or "What if one of the teens saw me do this?" Whether you are a volunteer or a teen, participation in the ministry provides not only community but accountability, as well.

I am so hopeful for the future of the Church after working with the teens. Being around young people seeking the Lord and desiring to serve Him leaves a lasting impression. The youth are vibrant and powerful, and I hope I can fuel their fire.

After reflecting on my experience, I would ask that you prayerfully consider volunteering with one of Holy Spirit's ministries, whether it is the Youth Ministry or something else. I have a particular love for the Youth Ministry because it is such a critical time in a person's life. Young people need visible signs of adults who care about Jesus and who live out their Catholic faith as an intentional choice. Whether you are young and single or have been married for many years, you have something to offer the teens with your life experiences and through your example.

Working with the teens is the best part of my week. It is sometimes a challenge to balance this ministry with my other obligations, but I would not trade my time with the Youth Ministry for anything else. C.S. Lewis likened Christianity to a "good infection" that a person gets only through personal contact with Jesus, and I cannot think of a better way of describing my experience with the Youth Ministry thus far. I have been "infected" with the spirit of the ministry since I first got involved and it has grown ever since. I invite all of you to consider doing the same.

Peace,
Nick Macedonia

Our Youth Ministry Program is in need of volunteers for the upcoming 2014-15 school year. If you want to learn more about our program or if you are interested in helping us, please contact Kate Kelly: youthministry@holyspiritchurch.us
